

Biography of Brenda Morant

Brenda Morant is a social entrepreneur, pioneer and forerunner for the empowerment of women and girls. She serves as President of the International Women's Think Tank, an organization focused on promoting research, critical thinking and innovative solutions on issues related to women and girls. Major research includes "The Third Billion" and women redefining the global economy. The Georgia State Senate recently honored Ms. Morant with Senate Resolution 5 which commends the International Women's Think Tank for its work to improve the status of women and girls.

Working with a broad range of trade associations, Fortune 500's, governments and NGO's, Brenda guides the long-term strategic vision of business clients and helps identify growth opportunities. She is a strategic adviser in the fields of business, economic and community development, STEM education and strategic partnerships. Brenda is the Chair for the Georgia Million Women Mentors® Initiative and she provides national leadership to SAFEEflight (Showcasing Aviation for Empowering Education) and the OPEN DATA Science, Technology, Engineering, Agriculture and Math Initiatives. She works with development authorities to empower farmers through training and the Jatropha-To-Bio-Fuels program. Brenda also serves on the Aerotropolis Atlanta Alliance, Education Collective.
