

INDIAN AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Washington, DC

IAICC AT A GLANCE

Mission Statement:

“Promote and foster economic development of the United States of America, Republic of India together with the rest of the world for the benefit of all.”

About IAICC:

The Indian American International Chamber of Commerce (IAICC, formerly: USIACC/NIACC) is an umbrella organization that provides a sustainable platform and leadership forum for entrepreneurs, professionals, businesses and governments in the United States, and India to interact, exchange and promote economic development and improve relationship between U.S., India, and rest of the world.

Since its launch in Washington DC, in 1990, IAICC has been serving Indian American owned and operated businesses. IAICC, through its chapters, affiliates and other organizations provides vital resources and support to educate, train and mentor its membership. It acts as a catalyst to establish strategic alliances between businesses in the United States, India and the rest of the world to strengthen US-India relations, business and economic engagement.

I. Notable Accomplishments of IAICC on U.S. India Relations:

IAICC is a strong advocate for small and medium sized businesses in the United States, India and the rest of the world. Through its partnerships and advocacy programs, IAICC supports stronger trade policies and relationship between U.S., India, and other countries.

1. IAICC through its advocacy programs, has strongly supported numerous initiatives by the U.S. and Indian Government agencies:
 - a. IAICC assisted “U.S. India Defense Pact,” initiated under the Clinton administration, and continued its expansion under Presidents Bush, Obama and Trump administration.
 - b. IAICC assisted in the removal of U.S. sanctions against India.
 - c. IAICC assisted in passing of the “U.S. India Nuclear Treaty.”
 - d. IAICC assisted in the approval process of “Strategic Trade Authorization (STA1)” between U.S. and India which puts India on par with NATO countries to trade between U.S. and India which was announced by Commerce Secretary Wilbur Ross in July 2018.
 - e. IAICC assisted in passing the “U.S. Trade Pact with Canada and Mexico,” from day one to approval by the U.S Congress.
 - f. IAICC assisted in “U.S. India Trade and Commercial Agreements.”

- g. IAICC strongly supported “Opportunity Zone,” initiative through which over Five Trillion Dollars will be invested over the next 20 years.
 - h. IAICC strongly supported “U.S. India Motorcycles for Mangoes,” program.
2. IAICC assisted U.S. Small Business Administration to enter an MoU with the Government of India’s Ministry on Small & Medium Enterprises in 2007 with the help of AMCHAM New Delhi Chapter.
 3. Also, in concert with other national and international organizations, IAICC has made valuable contributions that benefit both U.S. and India and is still pursuing India’s permanent membership at the U.N. Security Council. The IAICC together with local and national Jewish organizations supported Israel-India diplomatic relations.
